All Star Quilters' Guild -Where everyone can shine!

Let's get to know Toni Anweiler a bit better. She is originally from Lewistown, Maine and now living Jacksonville, FL. She has also lived in Lynn, Massachusetts and Pensacola, FL. She lived Jacksonville, Florida for 37 years.

Her journey to quilting is similar to many of us. Toni has been quilting for 20 years. She took a quilting class in 1991 at FCCJ from Gay Montgomery, who until recently she had been a member of All Stars.

When asked about her first quilt, Toni stated her first quilt was queen sized and the pattern was called Basket Weave.

Toni has been a member of All Stars for over three years but until she retired, she couldn't attend the meetings. Toni states she enjoys the programs and like to see what others have made.

Toni stated she likes Batiks and anything in blue as her favorite fabric. She has entered 5 or so quilts in Quilt Fest.

Toni also belongs to Coastal Quilters and meets with a group of friends every Saturday to quilt. Toni's story quilt is a row-by-row she is working on (UFO) with patterns that she collected from driving across the United States on our visit to Alaska in 2016 when she spent the summer with a sister who lives there.

Toni's other activities she enjoys include, gardening, reading, and traveling. Tony says they just bought a small RV and their next trip will be to Colorado in 3 weeks.

She has 4 children, 2 grandchildren and 1 cat. In 2016 she retired from 27 years with Winn Dixie. Twenty of those years were in computer programming.

All Stars Quilt Retreat

ALL STARS QUILT RETREAT 2019
October 14-18, 2019
"BLOCK PARTY"

At the June 17 Guild meeting, the first day of registration for the All Stars Fall Retreat, all 35 available spaces were filled, and there are three names on the waiting list. If a space opens up, we will fill that space with a name from the waiting list. Names will be taken from the waiting list in the order they were added to the list.

If you made a partial payment of your registration, we will continue to take payments at the August and September Guild meetings. Final payment is due by Friday, October 4.

For Monday night dinner, there are two choice of entrée: eggplant parmesan and spaghetti with meatballs. The kitchen needs to know how many of each dish to prepare, so if you haven't made your choice yet, please be sure to see me at the next Guild meeting. If you don't eat red meat, please let me know that also, so that the kitchen can prepare a dish for you.

As anyone knows, who has attended, Retreats are great fun. This year's "Block Party" will carry on that tradition. In keeping with the theme, we will have a barbeque, games, a scavenger hunt and other block party activities. As in previous years, we also will provide a pattern so that you can make a block. On the last night of Retreat, those blocks will be given away in a drawing. Usually, there are enough blocks contributed so that three or four people win "bundles" of blocks.

Benefit Concert

Most of you know our sweet, hard working Community Service chair, Sue Abbey. You may have heard that her granddaughter Erin has been battling with cancer. Some friends of Sues' have organized a benefit concert to help offset some of her medical expenses. We are passing this information on to you in hopes that you will show your love and support for Sue and her granddaughter. The concert is being held at Lakewood United Methodist Church on Friday August 23, 2019 at 7pm. Tickets are $10.00 per person. They will also be accepting any love offerings as well. The church is located at 6133 San Jose Blvd. Jacksonville, Fl. 32217. We hope you will consider attending this concert and bring a friend. We hear there will be some amazing musicians.

Community Service

Thanks for the beautiful quilts and pillowcases you donated last month. I can't wait to see what beauties you bring in August. They are always so well received. It makes me proud to deliver them. Thanks so much.

Sue Abbey, Sue Blythe and Trish Egbert

Education

Linda Hahn's class last month was fabulous!! Not only did she teach us the Tiki Tiki quilt, but she gave us some great quilting tips.

On September 30 the class is Pretty In Pink Quilt. This quilt was designed and will be taught by Nancy Wines.

This is a very simple but striking quilt. It would be pretty in colors other than pink and could be made in many different fabric collections. This will be the last class of the year. Both classes are $10.

Bonnie Helm

Historian

Photos, articles and other documents If anyone has photos from the meetings or classes please send them to me for posting.

History

No history this month.

We're travelling for 3 weeks and I forgot to look back at the old newsletters before I left NH.

Kathi's Notes

Hello fellow guild members. Lots of quilting things coming up in the next few weeks. If you haven't signed up to help at Quilt Fest, you still have time.

Our pancake breakfast is right around the corner. And best of all our cookbooks will be out.

I'm still collecting fabric for our quilt fest bags. One is full and the other needs a lot more.

Fall is right around the corner, so enjoy what summer we have left.

Keep quilting,

Kathi Thompson

Library

The library will be closed this month since the tables will be needed for our pancake breakfast. Please keep any returns you have until the September meeting. See you in September!

Vicki Zoller

Membership

Membership Report for August 2019

There were 78 members present for the month of July. There were no visitors or new members this past month.

Lisa Anderson

Programs

This month the program will be Read My Quilts with Vicki Zoller. Yes, please come up and read my quilts! I love calligraphy, penmanship, fonts, lettering, and typefaces and enjoy incorporating them on the fronts and backs of many of my quilts. Please take some time to examine my quilts, (fairly) large and small, and read some of the stories and quotations. You might even discover a hidden message on the back of the quilts. Happy Quilting and Happy Reading!

Vicki Zoller

QuiltFest 2019

QUILTFEST 2019
September 19-21, 2019
"Bobbin on the Beach"

Here are some reminders about changes to this year's QuiltFest:

- The admission fee for the show will be increased to $12.
- For the first time, QuiltFest will begin accepting credit cards at the Quilt Sale table and QuiltFest table.

- Space for the Quilt Sale table will be expanded so that it is easier to view the quilts for sale and so that shoppers don't have to sort through large piles of quilts. In addition, the amount kept by QuiltFest for each individual's total sales will be increased from ten percent to 15 percent. The number of quilts each quilter can enter for sale has been increased to 20 per person. Krista Cline with Coastal Quilters is coordinating this activity, and more information about volunteering to work at the Quilt Sale table will be available at the August Guild meeting.
- The price for challenge packets for the 2020 show will be increased to $20.

The success of QuiltFest depends on its volunteers. At the June 17 Guild meeting we began taking signups for volunteers to work during QuiltFest. I am coordinating all volunteers for QuiltFest, and Mary Anne Dennis is coordinating volunteer signups for our Guild. The greatest need for volunteers is for Judging (Sunday, September 8, through Wednesday, September 11), Show Hostess (also known as White Glove), the Community Service table (a sit-down job) where pillow cases and Me Dolls are sewn, the Guild Outreach table (another sit-down job), Hanging (on Tuesday, September 17) and Take Down (on Saturday, September 21 after the show). Training for these last two volunteer positions will be provided. By the way, if you're interested in learning how quilts are judged, and in getting an advance look at the winning quilts, volunteer to help at judging. I participated for the first time last year, and it was a great learning experience.

To date, All Stars has had 40 members sign up to volunteer, the most of any guild. Let's keep those signups coming (last year we had 60 volunteers). Remember, with the exception of the Guild table where our raffle quilt is sold, if you volunteer at QuiltFest you will get into the show free on the day(s) you volunteer.

Some reminders from previous newsletters:

- Take-in for the show is September 7 at the church
- All Stars' assigned time to work the Quilt Sale table is Thursday morning, September 21 (the first day of the show), from 9:00 AM to 1:00 PM. In previous years, our time was Thursday afternoon.
- This year, All Stars will sponsor the Best in Show category (the award is $300), Best Hand Quilting ($100 award) and Best Machine Quilting ($100 award).
- Guild Table – Signups are underway for volunteers to work at the Guild table (see Betty Ann). This table is where we sell chances for the Guild's raffle quilt and answer questions about All Stars. Volunteers work two-hour shifts during the show. NOTE: This volunteer position does not include free admission to the show.

- Quilters Walk - Kathi Thompson is collecting civil war fabrics – fat quarters and larger – to be used to fill the tote bag that she has made to be donated to Quilters Walk by All Stars. Kathi has received so many donations that she has made another bag. She has asked for shirting fabric for this bag so that there are light-colored fabrics to go with the darker-colored civil war fabrics.
- Guild Community Outreach – Roberta Redshaw is working on this important display which will showcase our Guild’s charitable and community service projects. If you are interested in working at this table (a sit-down job) during QuiltFest, you can sign up on the volunteer form.

This year, the QuiltFest board enlisted several local celebrities and politicians to sponsor quilts in the show. All Stars was assigned State Senator Aaron Bean who represents Nassau County and part of Duval County. He has requested a Florida map-themed quilt, and Andrea Pellegrino has agreed to design and produce a quilt to be shown at QuiltFest. Thank you, Andrea, for agreeing to participate in this project.

The next QuiltFest Board meeting is at 7:00 PM on Tuesday, August 20, at 7:00 PM at the Lexington Hotel on the Southbank. Visitors are always welcome. If you are interested in attending to learn more about how QuiltFest is organized and staged, please talk to one of the All Stars QuiltFest Board representatives listed above for more information.

Linda Wilson

QuiltFest Givaways

Thanks to everyone who helped with the giveaways for QuiltFest. They look great. We had plenty of supplies donated by our generous members. Sit n stitch was a blast; putting it all together. You are a special group of ladies.

Pat D’Elia

Quilt Raffle Tickets

Ticket sales are going really well, although I misspoke at the last general meeting. (Oops) We have not already had 2000 tickets turned in, but there have been that number checked out. Remember, at least half of the proceeds will go to In The Pink. I have the tickets in packets of 20, but if you want a different amount, let me know. I have put together a few packets of 10. And don’t forget, there will be two prizes for ticket sales. One prize is for the person that sells the most tickets. The second prize is for the person that sells the winning ticket. Don't forget to sign up for a spot to help sell our raffle tickets at QuiltFest. Betty Ann is keeping the chart with times and dates. Please see her this month, if you haven't already.

Karol Blomgren

A QOV UPDATE: My husband, David, and I were privileged to attend our son, Andrew's, assumption of command ceremony as he became the director of Walter Reed Medical Center in Bethesda, MD last week. To witness all 5 services' personnel participating in the joint ceremony was amazing. While walking to the reception after the ceremony, I observed patients waiting for appointments and being helped in all conditions of need. Retired veterans were likewise being seen and attended to.

It brought home to me in a unique way the unselfish service that the men and women of our military perform for our country. The people I met that day, both enlisted and officers spoke of their love of country and belief in their jobs.

I can think of no better way to honor our service men and women than to sew a Quilt of Valor for them. When you do, write your name on a piece of paper and pin it to your quilt when you give it to me. Please make your quilts within the recommended size of a lap quilt of 54 by 72. Making a Quilt of Valor is a wonderful way to honor our brave men and women who give so much and selflessly serve our nation.

Patsy A. Barr, QOV coordinator

Roadtrip

Let's hit the road to Palatka, and Miss D's quilt shop. I'm thinking Friday, October 4th. I know it's right after QuiltFest, but maybe you'll need something for retreat or whatever other excuse you can come up with.

We will leave from Target at San Jose and I-295 at 9am. It takes an hour to get there, then we'll shop until lunchtime. Corky Bells is a favorite down that way, so I'll make a reservation and it'll be a fun day.

Sign up will be at the September guild meeting or by phone or email.

VROOM, VROOM.

Pat D'Elia

On August 26th, Betty Agnew will be leading us in making her Carry All bag. The supply list is below. Again, also bring your machine and basic sewing items. This is your chance to learn how to make the bag you've been asking about.

We begin gathering at 9:30 and Sit N Stitch runs from 10:00 till noon. Hope to see you there!

Sherry Verell

UFO Challenge

At the July 15 All Stars Guild meeting, seven members displayed eight completed UFOs and one completed quilt top.

Mary Anne Dennis showed a Chevron quilt that she started in 2015 or 2016 which she is going to enter in this year’s QuiltFest. Good luck, Mary Anne.

Pat D’Elia displayed two finished charm quilts – a batik quilt and a peach quilt. She had started to quilt a third quilt, also a batik quilt, in bright blue. She was dissatisfied with the way it looked, so her mother-in-law picked out all the quilting, and Pat re-quilted the quilt in a different color.

Kathleen Voigt showed a quilt titled “Grey Skies,” that she started in 2016 or 2017.

Sheri Harnack showed a quilt called “Cabin Tracks” that she made in 2015 that was quilted by Betty Ann Agnew. The pattern was on display at Cinnamon’s.

Sharyn Potfay showed a quilt inspired by a book on Guatemalan clothing that she borrowed from Jean Newton. She took the back off a blanket she bought in Guatemala in 2013 to make the quilt.

Marsha Bookstaver showed a black, red and white quilt called “Five Framed” that she made in 2017 in a class she took from Nancy Wines.

Bonnie Helm showed a sailboat quilt top made from fabric that she bought at the Houston quilt show in 2011.

Remember that the criteria for UFOs are that the quilt should have been started in 2017 or earlier, and the UFO quilts should be completed when they are displayed. For each completed UFO you enter, your name will be entered for a drawing that will take place at the end of the year (e.g., if you complete ten UFOs, your name will be entered ten times).

You still have time to take part in this activity. Mary Anne Dennis will have the forms you can use to list your UFOs at the August 19 Guild meeting. For each quilt you complete you will receive a sticker designed by Andrea Pellegrino. See how many stickers you can collect by the end of this challenge. We're looking forward to seeing the next group of UFOs completed by our talented members.

Linda Wilson for Mary Anne Dennis

Ways and Means

This month is BIG for Ways and Means. We have the PANCAKE BREAKFAST on August 19th, starting at 8:30am at the church. Tickets are $7 and can be purchased at the door. NO REFRESHMENTS WILL BE SERVED BEFORE THE MEETING IN AUGUST. The regular meeting will follow the breakfast at 10am.

Bring your appetites. This will be GOOD.

Also, at this meeting, we will be distributing the cookbooks if they are ready. I've been told they will be, but I don't have them yet, so I cannot promise.

We will have two lines for picking up books. Those with last names starting with A-L will get theirs in Sunnie and Sherry's line. Those with last names starting with M-Z will pick theirs up with Donna and June. It would be great if you had checks made out in advance for the number of cookbooks you ordered. Checks should be made out to All Stars. Cash will also be accepted. We will have change. The cookbooks are $15 each. If for whatever reason you have prepaid for your books and are there to pick them up, you must still WAIT in line. Thanks for understanding.

Pat D'Elia

Attention      Attention      Attention

Due to the breathing problems of some of our members, our guild has become a fragrance-free zone. Please be considerate of your fellow members and do not wear heavy fragrance to our meetings, classes, road trips, or retreats. If you are bringing a guest to a guild function, please ask them to be fragrance free also! Thank you in advance. We hope you will understand!
